A week of activities and community involvement on the part of Up with People's international cast will culminate with a 7 p.m. performance Friday at East High School.

Tickets for the musical "The Journey," a 50th anniversary show, are $15 for adults and $10 for students and children.

Friday's Up with People performance is the first in Pueblo since the 1990s.

East students will get a preview of the big show via an 11:30 a.m. performance Friday.

Up with People is an educational organization whose mission is to bridge cultural barriers and create global understanding through service and a musical show.
